Selling Tips for Your Home

Keep it clean: Look at your home as though you're seeing it for the first time. Is every room neat, spotlessly clean, dusted and uncluttered? Steam clean carpets and wax floors. Wash walls, heating and A/C vents and light fixtures. Pay special attention to your bathroom and kitchen - make sure that tile grout is mildew free and baseboards scrubbed. Clean the refrigerator and stove as well as the washer and dryer (inside and out).

Lose the clutter: Have a yard sale or donate old furniture, clothing and knick-knacks to charity. Organize shelves, put away items and purge your home of unnecessary items. Make sure that your kitchen and bathroom counters are free of small appliances and personal effects.

Questions to Ask Your Agent

How can you help me find the right home?

Good agents will impress you with their knowledge of the local real estate market and their ability to appreciate what you are looking for in a home. They should be able to show you what is available in your price range, and how the features and benefits of specific houses and neighbourhoods fit your requirements.

Given our particular circumstances, what advice would you offer?

Every family is different, and a good real estate agent appreciates this. He or she should be able to advise you on how to find a home that meets your unique circumstances and lifestyle.

Why should I work with just one agent?

If you don't have an exclusive agency agreement with your sales representative, you're not legally obligated to work only with him to find your next home. It may, however, greatly benefit you to do so. Talk to your prospective real estate agent to find out his position, and then determine what's best for you.

What happens when you are not available?

Agents work extremely long hours and try to be available whenever and wherever you need them. But however accommodating they try to be, they are not always available. Ask your prospective real estate agents what arrangements they have in place when they are not available.

What makes your real estate service special?

Every agent tries hard to give top-notch service, but what distinguishes a really good one from the rest? Ask them. You may be surprised at what they have to say and, just as importantly, how they say it.

Home Staging Tips:

When it comes to selling your home, there's one thing to keep in mind: people don't buy houses, they buy homes. Your goal is to make it easy for potential buyers to picture themselves living in your home. The act of grooming and decorating a house to properly showcase its features and make it more attractive is referred to by industry experts as home staging. Ask me for more information.

Client Testimonials:

"We wanted to take the opportunity to thank both Aly and Ernie for the excellent and professional service you offered. It was nice to see how well you coordinated your services and worked so efficiently as a team which was especially helpful to us in our circumstance. Ernie, you were very helpful and patient when asked to go above and beyond especially while Aly was on vacation and you were handling all business.

It was especially refreshing to be treated with respect and honesty through the whole process. Your dedication was much appreciated. It is with pleasure that we will certainly refer you to all of our friends, family and colleagues when/if they require real estate services in the future."

Marc and Lorraine Germain, 1676 Goldenridge Road

"Aly and Ernie, what can we say? How do we begin to thank you both? We received first class service and are ever grateful for your help in selling our homestead in Guildwood. Our sincere regrets for not thanking you for the quick sale of our home and also the gift you sent to us last Christmas. We are settling into our new home and of course being close to the family is great. Our neighbours are still in awe re the sale. They all have your business cards and hopefully it will drum up some business for you. We are very grateful to you both for your hard work and professionalism and wish you both all the best!"

Jan and George Lake, 10 Avonmore

"Special thanks for your patience (over 2 years) and all your encouragement and support along the way! Your team is effective and dedicated. We really enjoyed the stager (Alison Overington) and your solid advice and guidance with preparing our home for sale. It took a while, but at the end of the day, the final sale of 270 Koning Court and the time it took both exceeded our expectations and we are thrilled with the final result. Best wishes to you for your continued success. You both deserve it!"

Rick and Marion Basserman, 270 Koning Court

"I would like to thank you for looking after the sale of my home recently that closed on October 31st. Your expertise, patience, support and knowledge made the whole experience less stressful. There was always a personal touch. You spent unlimited time with me which was beyond anything that I expected. I would highly recommend Royal LePage for selling or buying a house. My family and I will always remember this as a positive experience."

Sandy Ferris, 66 Tilley Drive

"I would like to thank Aly Buckingham and Ernie MacMaster for their skillful help in selling my house. Their expertise and professionalism from beginning to end was greatly appreciated. Staging really does work for the seller and the buyer. A beautiful virtual tour and pictures emerged from that effort. The 'Open House' was a success and Aly outdid herself in the way she handled the offers and the agents in the last stage of selling my house. I would recommend both Aly and Ernie to anyone thinking of selling their properties now or in the near future. You will not find anyone else so accommodating and down to earth."

Norah Bonner, 6 Clearlake Avenue

"We would like to thank Both Aly and Ernie for all their knowledge and guidance throughout our selling experience. Not having any experience with the real estate business since our purchase 41 years ago, we needed all the help we could get and the two of you came through beautifully. Because of your suggestions and help, we were successfully able to sell within a week above the asking price. What more could anyone ask? Thank you both again!"

Wayne and Janet Shaw, 49 Wichey
